

Renew All Things [A-B]

[Encounter ]

Intro

D/ F#m/ E///

V1:

          D    F#m        E                  D                F#m        E
Come Lord Jesus, come today, On the clouds call home your saints
          D    F#m        E                  D                F#m        E
We long to long no more, all that's lost will be restored

Chorus:

          A                                  A/C#
He will restore the broken spirit, return all that is lost
D                  A    Bm                  E
everything you love, Jesus will renew
          A                                  A/C#
no more pain, no more hardship when his promise is complete D                  A    Bm                  E
everything you love, Jesus will renew

V2:

          D                F#m        E
set my mind on things above,
          D                F#m                                  E
not on things destroyed by moth and rust
          D                F#m        E                          D                F#m        E
let the promise give me strength, to live for heaven all my days

Chorus:

Bridge:

          A
I can see a new heaven and earth thats coming where our hearts are never again left wanting
          A                                  A/D A
I can see a new heaven and earth thats coming
          A                                  A/D A
where our hearts are never again left wanting
          D                                  G    D
I believe king Jesus is returning
          D                                  G    D
when the saints go home for all eternity
          E                                  A E
and the dead will raise from grave to glory
          E                                  A E
when the trump sounds on that day of victory
          B                B/D#    B7    E
Christ will come and renew all things
